

JUMAH C. IBEAGBAZI

Jumah is a versatile Artist trained at the University of Benin in Nigeria where he won the Deans Award as best graduating student of Fine and Applied Arts 1999 Class.

Jumah has been involved in so many projects ranging from fashion shows, beauty Pageants , and a host of other workshops. His paintings have been exhibited in several major cities in Africa , the United States and Europe. Before relocating to the United States recently, Jumah taught Drawing and Painting at the University of Port Harcourt for a period of five{5} years.

Today, Jumahs paintings particularly portraiture rendered in oil on canvas are in notable private and public collections all over the world. Jumahs passion for the Audio Visual media led to his involvement in several Films, Documentaries, Talk shows and Television Magazine programs especially in the areas of Concept\ Research and Development, Set Design and Production as well as in Post Production.